and Revenue Dept.

Principal.
Central College, Bangalore.

When the Basavanagudi Extension was opened, soon after the first outbreak of plague in this town, a cottage house-site was allotted to me to enable me to raise a building on it, and you were kind enough to secure for me for the purpose a Government loan of Rs 1680/-, my one year's pay at the time. I beg leave to state I have now liquidated the whole of this loan

Not having much experience in house-building, the plan I adopted was somewhat elaborate and there-

Inspection Report on the house of Mr. C. Ku. Vijayaraghavachar Lecturer in Chemistry Central College situated in Basavanga Extension

I inspected the house on the 31st ultim. The original loan of Rs 1680, has been completely adjusted.

The improvements suggested by the owner are, throughly terracing the present incomplete terrace through which Water Soaks & thus greatly damages the building. The Stair Case is very unsafe & so a parapat ~~wa~~ wall has to be Constructed. He intends plastering the out houses. Constructing a latrine and a coach godown.

The valuation of the house is roughly Rs 2000/-

The owner States that the house is not encumbered.

The loan applied for May it is submitted be granted.
